"My little 18-months-old baby shortly after being weaned was very ill while teething. She was sick nine weeks and we tried everything. She became so emaciated that it was painful to handle her and we thought we were going to lose her. One day a happy thought urged me to try Grape-Nuts soaked in a little warm milk.

"Well, it worked like a charm and she began taking it regularly and improvement sent in at once. She grow well and round and fat as fast as possible on Grape-Nuts.

"Sometime ago several of the family were stricken with LaGrippe at the same time, and during the worst stages they could not relish anything in the shape of food but Grape-Nuts and oranges, everything else was nauseating.

A most instructive paper on Chrisfrom the union.

A most instructive paper on Christian Endeavor Opportunities in the Country was read by Mrs. York It gave a resume of the work of the Goshen society and of the many working members who have gone from the church to other places. Miss Alice A. Brown of Jewett City held the closest attention of the audience while she read a story, written by herself. It was a Christian Endeavor romance, and was replete with true Christian Endeavor spirit. The romantic touch to the story was astonishingly true to life and caused much laughter and prolonged applause greeted the author at the close.

Echoes from Northfield were given by the young people who attended the conference and was given under the able direction of Miss Calla White. Papers and talks on different phases of the conference were given by Miss Ruth Avery, Raymond Ewing, Helen Ewing, Calla White, Marian Rogers and Helen Eadle. The conference songs were sung and there was a solo by Raymond Ewing.

Rev. Mr. Zumbro of India was present and gave a short talk on Christian Endeavor work in South India.

Rev. Mr. Zumbro of India was present and gave a short talk on Christian Endeavor work in South India. The meeting adjourned and the company were invited to supper. The tables were laid under the trees and a sumptuous repast was served. At each place was a dahlia to which was attached an apt sentiment. The napkins all bore the picture of Williston church, the birthplace of Christian Endeavor. A vote of thanks was extended the society for their generous hospitality. There were a number of guests present, a large delegation coming from Scotland Road, where a new society has recently been organized. Therhe were one hundred and twenty-five present at the services.

BUILDINGS FOR SCHOOL

FOR FEEBLE-MINDED. State Has Plans Presented by Eleven Architects.

Eleven architects from various parts of the country appeared before the building committee of the board of trustees of the Connecticut School for the Feeble-Minded at a session held at the capitol Friday afternoon and presented plans for new buildings to be built at Mansfield Depot for the institution. The greater part of the afternoon was spent in examining the plans, but no set was selected, the plans, but no set was selected, the committee preferring to make a detailed examination later.

The following buildings are to be built: Addition to power house, consisting of engine room, work shop and enclosure for pump, in one building, to cost not more than $10,000; laundry building with equipment, to cost not more than $20,000; two dormitories, each to cost with equipment, not more each to cost, with equipment, not more than $50,000; two dining and dormithan $50,000; two dining and dormitory building, each to cost, with equipment, not more than $17,000; two cottages, each to cost, with equipment, not more than $14,500.

The last legislature made an appropriation of $200,000 to cover the cost of the erection of these buildings. The land upon which the buildings are to be located is situated at Mansfield Depot and contains about seventy-five acres. In the opinion of the trustees of the school, an expenditure of $500,000 to $750,000 will utimaately be required in order properly to house all persons in this state who are proper subjects to be committed to the institution. proper subjective institution.
